

CAN'T SELL COUNTY FARM

County Commissioners Received No Bids for Land East of City.

No bids having been received by the board of Tulsa county commissioners on the 200 lots comprising the former Tulsa county farm, lying south and east of the fairgrounds.

It was decided Tuesday by the commissioners to defer any action for the sale of the property until after the holidays.

Two months ago a commission appointed by district court assessed the property at $60,000 and in the advertisement for bids, the lots could be sold by the commissioners for 50 per cent of their value or $30,000.

006. No bids were received by the commissioners at their meeting Monday and Tuesday. The sale of the property was asked by the county commissioners, because the county farm is in the residence section of the city and should a sale be consummated the commissioners will purchase a larger farm further removed from Tulsa, upon which to establish the county institution.

Make This A "Money" Christmas—

This year, when prices are high and money scarce, you can make mother, father, child or friend happy by giving money for Christmas. You can deposit the money for them and give the pass book showing the money on deposit, or you can give them cash. We suggest the former plan.

We will gladly open a savings account for anyone you choose and for Christmas you can give them the pass book and wish them a "Money Christmas." If you want to give cash we will furnish you with new bills of any denomination and a neat Christmas holder for the bills. We have only a limited number of these holders so we advise that you get yours early.

We wish you a "Money Christmas."
